

Seems that just about everyone here is having a peddling good time getting their kicks on famed U.S. Route 66. It's also called the Will Rogers Highway, the Main Street of America and the Mother Road. The bikers are just a few minutes away from where the highway completes its 2,448-mile length from Chicago to the Pacific Ocean beaches.