

The building complex in the capital city includes more than two million square feet of exhibits. They represent everything from prehistoric archeology to contemporary Chinese culture, as well as other examples of the world's art, sculpture and design.

Located next to Tiananmen Square, the museum address is 16 East Chang'an Av., Dongcheng, Beijing 100006 PR China. Admission is free. For info and news about current and upcoming exhibits, go to en.chnmuseum.cn