

Memorial Day is for honoring those who have served and still serve today in all American wars. It's a day to take a moment to reflect on those brave men and women who fought and died so we can live in freedom. Enjoy the holiday, and while you're with your family, think of our veterans, brave friends and loved ones who are no longer with us.

