

Scenic Lancaster County in Pennsylvania is one of the most attractive and enjoyable autumn destinations anywhere. At the heart of the area is the Amish community, where tourists can enjoy the picture-book farm scenery, quaint shops and some of the best fresh-food, home-style dining in the world.

Visitors always admire the the charm of the gentle Amish people who steadfastly hold on to their 300-year-old traditions, and are admirable reminders of how they maintain their unspoiled communities. For shopping, dining and touring, be sur to visit the county's towns with names that will make you smile, such as Lititz, Intercourse, Bird in Hand, Bareville, Mount Joy and Blue Ball. For more information about Lancaster County PA, check with your favorite online or hometown travel agencies, or go to www.co.lancaster.pa.us/