

Did you know the tower construction started in the year 1173? The unusual landmark has become a famous tourist destination, especially for taking photos from all angles. There are 294 spiral steps to the bells at the top. In 1944 World War II combat in the area, American GIs were ordered to destroy all towers to get rid of German snipers. However, the Tower of Pisa was spared as the fighting moved on elsewhere.