

Your travel4seniors.com editor recently encountered this friendly face at Los Angeles International Airport. The happy dog works there with the volunteer PUPS (Pets Unstressing Passengers) program.

So next time you arrive or depart at super-busy LAX, and you're all stressed out, take a moment to reLAX with one of these happy four-legged greeters.