

If you're a fan of famed 20th Century abstract artists, on your next trip to Paris, put this on your cultural visit schedule. You'll want to spend a day at the newly-restored Picasso Museum.

The museum, located in a former mansion, has more than 5,000 examples of the prolific artist's work and life. They include, paintings, drawings, sculptures, ceramics, photographs and documents.

For fees, visitor hours and other info, go to www.museepicassoparis.fr/en