

Your travel4seniors.com editor always enjoys wandering thru the steamier parts of Amsterdam. With it's historic museums, ancient cathedrals, tulip gardens and other wonders, it's one of the most interesting cities in the world.

However, the city fathers have decided to cool down some of the racy neighborhoods, some of the hooker display windows and sex toy stores still operate. The theme of many of the retail stores is changing from sexy to arty for De Walletjes in the Centrum District. For current info, go to www.amsterdam.info/red-light-district
