

If your roamings include the beautiful California coastal city, be sure to bask in 360° views of the city, sunny beaches and surrounding ocean. When you take the rooftop tour, you'll be hosted by local volunteers who offer historical, architectural and other current information. While up there day or night, you may also witness one of the frequent weddings, anniversary celebrations or colorful holiday events.