

After more than a year closed due to extensive repairs, the partially-submerged battleship will once again welcome visitors. A shocking moment in U.S. history was when Japanese aircraft sank the ship in the infamous sneak attack on December 7, 1941.

As we celebrate Veteran's Day, along with all who served in our wars, we remember and respect the 1,177 Navy crewmen who were killed in the Pearl Harbor attack. For info on visiting the USS Arizona Memorial, go to www.hawaii.com/oahu/attractions/arizona-memorial
