

So, what are the 1001 greatest works of art of all time, you may wonder...

We found a great article in the British Newspaper the Guardian . In the spirit of 1000 places to go before you die and similar lists, the writers of the Guardian have compiled their own list, along with brilliant photographs. Its a wonderful range and because it's a compilation from multiple writers, it has very good range, from Modern masters to ancient Incan pieces and everything in between. Full article

here