

A month after beginning her term as New York's 14th District Rep, Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, a self-confessed Bernie Sanders socialist, released her "Green New Deal". It threatens quote; "a massive transformation of our society."

One of the proposed spectacular changes is to build trains that can run on tracks across oceans and end all air travel. So, if you can wait a couple of years, maybe you'll be able to ride the waves in that cross-Atlantic train from New York to London.
