

Q: We're planning a Los Angeles trip with a booked bus tour in Hollywood. Our grandkids were there last month and talked about all the fuss people make at the Donald Trump star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Where is it located, so we can pay our respects or disrespects? Margaret P., Evanston IL

A: It's located on the 6800 block, between two metal elevator grates, and retail stores Sephora and American Eagle. It does get a lot of attention from both pro- and anti-Trump tourists. It's next to the star for the recently disgraced actor Kevin Spacey, so you can expect some creative posing and other antics by tourists. Bring your camera
