

1. The world is a book, and those who do not travel read only a page: Saint Augustine
2. When you come to a fork in the road, take it: Yogi Berra
3. The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new views, but in seeing with new eyes: Marcel Proust
4. Travel can be thrilling, except when you have to look at your in-laws' out-of-focus, boring video of their Baja cruise: Travel55Plus
5. All journeys have secret destinations of which the traveler is unaware: Martin Buber
6. When packing your suitcase, lay out all the clothes you'll absolutely need, then put at least half of them back in the drawer: Travel55Plus
7. Travel in young people is part of education; in elders, a part of experience: Francis Bacon
8. It is more pleasant to travel than to arrive: Anonymous
9. Two roads diverged in a wood, and I took the one less traveled by: Robert Frost
10. Getting there is no longer half the fun if you've ever had your private parts prodded by the airport guard's electronic wand, and had yourself strip searched. Unless, of course, that'd your kind of fun: Travel55Plus
