

Next time you take your grandkids to the popular amusement park, be sure you experience this now everyday feature. Ghostly characters with bulging eyes and crazy faces wander around scaring everyone.

Sort of like a holiday gathering of your spouse's relatives or attending a session of Congress in Washington. For more info, go to www.universalstudioshollywood.com