

Huh? Some regular seasoned visitors may not quite agree, but the popular internet travel site lists Circus Circus as the top hotel in town.

Of course, in-demand first place doesn't mean best for quality, service and cleanliness. According to Expedia, the list is for the 20 most booked hotels. In second place is Excalibur another vintage Vegas hotel that has seen better days and nights.

Luxor is 3rd, Treasure Island 4th and Stratosphere 5th. Mandalay Bay, one of the most luxurious in town, managed to earn 10th place, and ARIA, a newer posh hotel, was 16th.
