

Your travel4seniors.com editor witnessed this traditional daily scene that draws tourists to the popular Pike Place Market. The century-old, nine-acre complex features fresh produce, meats, seafood, bakeries, restaurants and much more. It overlooks scenic Elliott Bay on Seattle's Pacific waterfront. If you're planning to visit, check on special programs, holiday promotions and other events. pikeplacemarket.org