

Today just about every senior traveler carries a little box that takes great photos and video. We polled a group of our most experienced mature wanderers.

Where are the best places are for taking creative scenes featuring their smiling selfie faces? These are the result:

New York NY: Standing out from the madding crowds at Times Square.

San Francisco CA: Beautiful sunset as you stroll along the Golden Gate Bridge.

Paris, France: Munching on a jambon frite as the Eiffel Tower soars above you.

London, England: Directing traffic with a Bobby in front of Parliament and Westminster Abbey.

Beijing, China: Hiking along the Great Wall of China.

Grand Canyon AZ: Riding mules down Bright Angel Trail to the Colorado River.

Pisa, Italy: You just gotta get that trick shot of you holding up the Leaning Tower.

Athens, Greece: Standing on the steps of the Parthenon giving a speech worthy of Socrates.

Cabo San Lucas, Mexico: Grinning on the deck of your cruise ship in front of the famed ocean rock formations and setting sun.

Easter Island, Chile: Standing among the ancient stone figures with the same mysterious frown on your face.
