

They're responsible for checking luggage, security in the airport and in passenger areas of your aircraft. You see the K-9 teams constantly hard at work to protect you.

So, if it's OK with the handler to allow a brief pause, offer some words of appreciation and/or some friendly pats on the faithful furry head.