

News sources reported a recent obscene outburst from a emotionally-challenged employee on her last day on the job. As she led her final group through the city's popular Chinatown business section, she furiously spewed loud racial curses at the residents.

Your travel4seniors.com editor has visited the area, the world's largest Chinese community outside Mainland China, many times over 70 years. Never once did we experience anything other than warm welcome, great food, terrific entertainment and unique shopping.

While Chinatown has retained its historic themes, the residents, including San Francisco's current mayor, Ed Lee, have been loyal Americans since the early Asian settlers there more than 150 years ago. For your upcoming visit, get the latest info at www.sanfranciscochinatown.com
